Character Description/Portrait

An offense oriented spell caster, able to heal themselves as they damage their foes and inflict a curse that lowers the target's defense. They have higher HP than most spellcasters, but below average MP. They can compensate for this with Life Tap, paying HP to regenerate their MP.

Their starting Lesson is A Curse Most Foul, which allows them to deal damage when they use a curse. It also allows them to pay the cost for their curses in HP instead of MP. Reduce a foe's defenses with Expose, then go in for the kill with Dark damage. (They can also choose Ice if they are fighting a Dark resistant foe.)

When you start the game, choose between two Abilities: Elemental Blast or Psychic Lance.

Elemental Blast affects all creatures in a Zone, allowing you to strike multiple foes at once. If you also use your Minor Action when casting this, you can exclude a target from the effect. This means you can spare one ally in melee range of your targets.

Psychic Lance damages the target's MP instead of HP. It can severely limit an opponent's options.

Personality Traits

Outside of combat, the Occultist is a trove of knowledge both mundane and forbidden. Their high History, Lore, and Science Skills mean they have a lot of information to share. They can use their high Investigation Skill to research and discover even more dark secrets. They have also practiced Deception so they can hide their dark deeds.

They also have the Whispered Wisdom Utility, allowing them to conduct a ritual to learn more about an area or event. The details of this ritual are up to you: come up with something that fits the type of Occultist you want to play.

Talents

Elemental Specialist (Dark) - Gain the following benefits:
* Learn Elemental Attunement (Dark) for free
* Gain Dark Resistance
* You may spend 1 MP to convert an Attack or Spell's damage type to Dark.
* Dealing Dark damage heals you for half the damage done. (Round all fractions down.)

Lessons

* A Curse Most Foul - When using a [Curse], your target also takes damage equal to half of your Offense. Use Physical Offense if the Curse is an Attack, or Mental Offense for a Spell. This extra damage is the same Damage Type as the Curse you use. For Curses that don't do damage without this Lesson, the damage type is Dark. In addition, if the Curse costs HP, you may spend MP instead. If it costs MP, you may spend HP instead.
* Elemental Attunement (Dark, Ice) - When using [Elemental] Abilities, you may choose to do Dark or Ice damage.
 Utility: Whispered Wisdom - Increase your Empathy and Lore by 1.
You can also glean information about locations or events intuitively. Conduct a ritual for at least one minute, then make a Lore check. This check's difficulty is determined secretly by the Arbiter. If you succeed, you learn something about the area or event in question. If you fail, there is no answer.
