Character Description/Portrait

A spell caster specialized in control and support. They can use Accelerate to make their allies move faster and Decelerate to slow their foes. Kinetic Force allows them to move opponents around the battlefield, creating openings for their allies and disrupting their foe's plans. These options require a lot of MP, but the Mana Fountain Talent gives them very high max MP to support these costs.

Their starting Lesson is Manamaim, which allows them to increase the MP cost of their offensive Spells to increase the damage they deal.

When you start the game, choose between two Abilities: Kinetic Pummeling or Vanish.

Kinetic Pummeling deals damage to everyone in the target Zone. You can spend your Minor Action while using this to reduce its otherwise high MP cost.

Vanish lets you turn invisible for a short duration, giving you an opening to retreat if enemies get too close. Given the Chronomancer's low HP, this can be a good way to escape from close encounters.

Personality Traits

Outside of combat, the Chronomancer contributes extensive knowledge to the group. Their high Lore Skill makes them experts on magic and related topics. (For settings that emphasize technology over magic, this can easily transfer to a high Tech instead.) They also have strong History and Science scores. Their Craft Skill allows them to tinker and make devices, while their high Investigation helps them find hidden lore or evidence as needed.

The Credentialed Academic Utility means they have connections to an academy or similar institution that will vouch for their expertise as well as letting them choose a subject they have deep expertise in.

The Eidetic Memory Utility means they can remember any information they find in future.
